Tuesdays 12:00 pm – 1:15 pm; September 19, 26, October 3, 10

This class will focus on relationship with your dog while working. Each class will include some obstacle basics (and maintenance of behaviors) and handling basics, while keeping a greener dog focused on you. Discussion on rewards and focus will be part of this class. Dogs that are not yet competing but familiar with jumps and tunnels (up to all obstacles) are perfect for this class. Dogs struggling with focus issues will also benefit. Dogs may be jumping at a lower than competition height. Max 8 dogs.

Competition Basic – 1 ¼ hours

$100 for 4 weeks

Mondays 6:30 – 7:45 pm; September 11, 18, 25, October 2

Tuesdays 9:30 am – 10:45 am; September 19, 26, October 3, 10

This class is for dogs currently competing at a beginning and mid-level that can safely perform all obstacles. This class will focus on building trust that your dog will commit to an obstacle so you can effectively execute your handling choices. Commands to assist you in handling your dog on course will be broken down and taught. Distractions and maintenance of criteria will be discussed and worked on. Max 8 dogs.

Masters Competition Walk In – 1 ¼ hours

$100 for 4 sessions

Tuesdays 8:00 – 9:15 pm; All Tuesdays that other classes are taking place, unless otherwise notified

The ultimate in flexibility!!! Designed for people who cannot commit in advance to several weeks! Students can come to class on a walk-in basis. Classes will be Masters course-based and feedback will be individualized.

Private Lessons –

60 min. - $60

45 min. - $45
